

Network

Nodes will represent characters, links will represent interactions, scenes they appear in together, words that they say to each other, or other

Arc

Nodes will represent characters, links will represent interactions, scenes they appear in together, etc.

Can be sorted by episode, season or all

Other ideas:

Word cloud: could represent what characters say most, including individual words or even most common phrases

Episode chart: box diagram with a square for each episode highlighting how many lines/words a character say in each episode to show sequential patterns or one-off appearances.

Line/bar chart: show total words lines of a character filtered by episode, season or all.